Medical Associations - 1914.

MEETING OF NATIONAL MEDICAL ASS'N

Wilmington, N. C., Sept. 2.—The National Medical Association opened here last Tuesday at 11 o'clock a. m. in Show University Chapel, with all the national officers present; that is, the president, Dr. A. M. Brown, M.D. Birmingham, Ala.; Dr. W. G. Alexander, M.D., of Orange, N. J., general secretary, and Dr. J. R. Levy, M.D., Florence, S. C., treasurer. The executive board: Geo. E. Cannon, M.D., 1914 chairman, Jersey City, N. J.; E. T Belsaw, D.D.S., 1915 secretary, Mobile, Ala.; J. A. Robinson M.D., 1914, Darlington, S. C.; F. S. Hargrave, M.D., 1915, Wilson, N. C.; A. M. Curtis, M.D., 1914, Washington, D. C.; C. V. Romon, M.D., 1915, Nashville, Tenn.; F. W. Raglond, Phar.D., 1915, Birmingham, Ala.; E. W. Irving, M.D., 1916, Memphis, Tenn.; A. Wyche, M.D., 1916, Charlotte, N. C.

Dr. C. A. Dunston, local chairman, introduced the president, who delivered a masterly address to more than 300 doctors, and as many visitors as could squeeze into the chapel, which was fully packed. The first day's session begun with the reading of papers on the following subjects: By W. W. Johnson, M.D., Covington, Va., "The Physician and the Patient"; by Valdc Turner, M.D., St. Paul, Minn., "Acute Inflammatory Rheumatism and Its Treatment"; by S. S. Burington, M.D., Georgetown, S. C., "What Is Pellagra?" Illuminating papers were read by F. O'Hara Miller, M.D., Wichita, Kan., "Dysmenorrhea, Its Causes and Treatment"; by A. L. Thompson, M.D., Memphis, Tenn., "Symptoms and Treatment of Typhoid Fever"; by W. F. Holmes, M.D., Florence, S. C., "Blood Pressure. Its Clinical Significance"; by F. D. Sessoms, M.D., Washington, Ga., "Puerperal Fever: "Etiology, Symptoms and Treatment"; by M. G. Darley, M.D., Chicago, Ill., "Intestinal Tuberculosis"; by J. R. Shepherd, M.D., Marshall, Tex., "Appendicitis: Its Pathology, Symptoms, Diagnosis and Treatment"; by F. S. Simpson, M.D., Ensley, Ala., "The Abuse of Surgery"; by John A. Kenney, M.D., Tuskegee Institute, Ala., "Past Operative Management of Abdominal Cases."

Public Meeting in City Auditorium.

The first day's session closed with a public meeting in the City Auditorium with a seating capacity of 5,000, and was full to hear His Excellency the Hon. Locke Craig, Governor, deliver his riotously welcome address to the visiting doctors. He was followed by the Mayor of the city, Hon. James I. Johnson, who spoke words of welcome to the visitors that could be readily felt as coming from his heart. Hon. John C. Drewy, representing the Chamber of Commerce, welcomed the doctors to our beautiful city, known as "the City of Oaks." Mrs. Hunter, wife of A. S. Hunter, D.D.S., of Durham, N. C., sang to encores twice. Dr. C. V. Roman, editor of the Medical Journal of the Negro National Medical, Dental and Pharmaceutical Association, read a paper entitled "A Preventable Death Rate."

At the Wednesday's session Simon L. Carson, M.D., Washington, D. C., delivered an oration on surgery, "Acute Indigestion?" These and many other interesting papers were read, and we would be pleased to note them in these columns, but space will not permit us to dilate further upon them. The elaborateness of the social functions as carried out by the "Woman's Department" and the North Carolina Medical, Dental and Pharmaceutical Association, as hosts were so profuse as to cause the delegates to say that it surpassed any reception that had been tendered them since their national organization had been launched. Teas, suppers, dinners, barbecues, trolley rides, smokers and "kitty walks" were features incident to the doctors' stay in our city. We may say more in our next.

We are pleased beyond measure with our "Home Folks" (the white citizens), who responded so nobly and "Tar Heel" like to our aid in making this colored gathering a pleasant success in every particular. The two daily newspapers opened their columns and printed everything we had to say, and made our guests feel welcome in the "Pine Tar State."

Election of Officers.

The election of officers took place on Thursday and resulted as follows: President, F. S. Hargrove, M.D., Wilson, N. C.; vice-president, R. C. Brown, D.D.S., Richmond, Va.; pharmaceutical vice, W. A. Jones, D.D.S., Winston Salem, N. C.; general secretary, W. G. Alexander, M.D., Orange, N. J.; assistant secretary, G. Ferguson, M.D., Charleston, S. C.; treasurer, J. R. Levy, M.D., Florence, S. C.; pharmaceutical secretary, H B. Marble, Yazoo City, Miss.; dental secretary, N. L. Edwards, M.D. Invitations to hold the next annual meeting were received from Chicago, Los Angeles, Cal., and Philadelphia, Pa. Chicago, Ill., is the meeting place for 1915. By a resolution adopted whiskey received a solar plexus knockout insofar as the doctors and druggists have to deal with it. Resolutions of thanks for their entertainment were adopted.

PROGRESS MADE IN DENTISTRY

Tri-State Association Meets at Buckroe, Va.

TEETH TOPICS DISCUSSED

Speakers at Second Annual Meeting of Thrifty Organization of Professional Men Emphasize the Importance of Sound Teeth—Dr. D. A. Ferguson of Richmond, Va., Elected President.

Many human ills, regardless of race, may be traced to poor teeth or to the early loss of teeth, due to neglect and ignorance. Sound teeth are assets of untold value, and the dentist is a real public servant.

How to promote better oral hygiene among the masses and how to create more unity of interest among colored dentists of the District of Columbia, Maryland and Virginia were some of the important problems that were thoroughly and interestingly discussed at the second annual convention of the Tri-State Dental association, which recently held a three day session at Bay Shore hotel, Buckroe, Va.

"The best ever" describes the 1914 convention, and Buckroe Beach has been selected for the next meeting place.

Dr. D. A. Ferguson, Richmond, Va., called the convention to order. The invocation was offered by Dr. Dudley of Roanoke. Frank D. Banks, head bookkeeper in the treasurer's office of Hampton institute, delivered an address of welcome, which was responded to by Dr. N. W. Edwards of Washington.

Dr. Park Tadcil of Washington read a paper on "Progressive Dentistry." The discussion was opened by Dr. D. A. Ferguson and was carried on by Dr. A. O. Reid of Baltimore, Dr. Dudley of Roanoke, Dr. E. Among the visitors to the dental convention were Lawyer J L. Pollard of Richmond; Rev. A. A. Graham, pastor of Zion church, Phoebus; Mrs. Maggie L. Walker, president St. Luke's bank, Richmond; Lawyer Thomas Newsome of Newport News, Dr. Dunstan of Raleigh, N. C. Dr. E. L. H. Fry, Dr. R. C. Brown, Dr. A. O. Reid, Dr. G. H. Butcher, Dr. J. M. Wilkins and Dr. E. R. Dudley. The names of new members submitted and reported upon favorably were Dr. S. F. Coppage, Dr. E. D. Downing, Dr. E. R. Dudley, Dr. W. T. Lovette, Dr. J. L. McGriff, Dr. S. A. Thomas, Dr. A. E. Gaskins and Dr. R. J. Brown.

The convention indorsed Dr. R. C. Brown as a delegate to the international hygiene congress, including the oral and dental hygiene congress, which will meet in Lyons, France, Sept. 24 to 28. Delegates elected to attend the National Medical association meeting, which will be held in Raleigh, N. C., Aug. 25 to 27, were Dr. R. A. Ferguson, Dr. J. M. G. Ramsey and Dr. J. M. Wilkins. FROM JANITOR TO PHYSICIAN.

Upward Climb of Dr. D. W. Roberts to Professional Recognition.

St. Augustine, Fla.—From the position of janitor of a large building in Chicago to one of the most successful physicians in the country is the distinction won by Dr. D. W. Roberts of St. Augustine, whose practice among the white people in this place is as large if not larger than that among the members of his own race.

Dr. Roberts was born in Charlottesville, Ind., where he attended the public school in the primary grades, and afterward took his high school training in Kansas City, Mo., graduating therefrom with honors. Like most young men, he had to work his way from the ground up, so to speak. He was very ambitious and never gave up the struggle.

He graduated from Jenner Medical college in June, 1896, with honors and in 1897 took the Florida state board medical examination and passed with a good average. He opened his office in St. Augustine and is doing well. He went to the city only to remain a short time, but he now declares that he would not leave the south because of the large amount of good he is able to do in this section of the country.

He is a member of the African Methodist church and is devoted to his church and the cause of uplift of the race. He is liberal in his contributions to the church and the cause of education. No one ever appeals to him for assistance and is turned away. If a sick person applies to him without money he is ready and willing to assist such, giving him such treatment as is needed.

There are many cases where Dr. Roberts has gone to the homes of his patients and taken money out of his pocket to assist them in their needs. He owns some good property in this city and is conducting a private sanitarium, giving employment to a number of our people. He is kept on the go day and night.

The Epworth Herald, published in Chicago, when Dr. Roberts graduated had the following to say about him:

"Dan, we called him. He is Dr. Roberts now. Dan has been the janitor of the Book Concern building at Chicago for the past six years.

"He has swept and scrubbed and dusted and kept things generally in order. It is a large building, and Dan has been compelled to work early and late. But meanwhile our colored friend has taken a full course at a reputable medical college. How he found time to attend lectures and clinics and prepare for recitations is more than we can understand.

"Last week Dan graduated with honors. That is why we now say Dr. Roberts. The fact is mentioned to show other young men what may be done under the most discouraging circumstances. If a young fellow is determined to secure an education and fight his way to the front nothing can keep him back."

CHICAGO, Ill., Sept. 30.—Dr. Harry W. Garnes wears the proud honor of being the president of the Chicago Dental Society. The honor was bestowed upon him on last Thursday evening at an annual election in the office of Dr. J. H. Plummer, 34th and State street. This organization has become one of the most useful in the city of Chicago. Under the presidency of the late Dr. Barnes, its officers and members made it their duty to give public addresses and talks on "How to Preserve the Teeth," its importance for good health and a sound body. Under Dr. Garnes this precedent will be kept up. Dr. Garnes will do all in his power to make the society one of the best in the country. Through him and its Executive Committee will do the honors for the National Medical Association, which will meet here next summer.

The other officers elected were Dr. Harper, vice president Dr. Norwood Thorne, secretary; Dr. J. H. Plummer, treasurer. Dr. Garnes is a graduate of the University of Illinois Dental Department. He has been practicing for several years and is one of the leading dentists of the West. The other officers are graduates of universities here and have lucrative practices. With the election of the above officers, the visiting doctors next summer will be guaranteed a good time and the local society greatly benefitted. All stand highly in the community and will be able to draw the support of the citizens in giving the visiting "Medico's" a royal time. Dr. Garnes has his office at 36th Place and State, over Binga Bank.

Dr. Harry W. Garnes, President.

DR. C. T. NICHOL APPOINTED CITY DENTAL INSPECTOR

11/7/14

DR. C. THOMAS NICHOL.

Recently Appointed as Dental Inspector of the City Schools.

"News from the front" tells of the appointment of this progressive young surgeon of the mouth by the highest average held "for whites" July 20. Dr. Nichol is a graduate of Fisk University, receiving the B. A. degree in 1902 and subsequently receiving the degree of doctor of dental surgery from Northwestern University in 1910.

He possesses all of the distinguished traits of true Southern aristocracy, with a personality distinctively individual and modest, interspersed with a keen sense of humor all his own. He enjoys a lucrative practice at 3500 State street among Chicago's elite, and promises to be one of our most successful professional young men. It goes without saying, therefore, we are only too glad to have such an example of stubborn zeal to succeed to cast his lot among us.

The Sun-Reporter
Francisco, Cal.
11/7/14

About two years ago the local doctors feeling the need of an organization in which they may come together and discuss subjects of interest to their profession, reorganized this association and to-day the organization is enjoying the support of every Negro physician dentist and pharmacist in the city.

The total membership of the association numbers 22, seventeen physicians, three dentists and two pharmacists.

Six medical institutions are represented. The members of the association and the schools they represent are as follows: G. W. Smith, W. C. Blackman, P. E. Love, H. B. The fourth annual meeting of the Pan-Missouri Medical Association, convened at St. Paul A. M. E. Church Wednesday morning for a three-day assembly. DR. TERRY REINSTATED AS MEDICAL INSPECTOR

Atlantic City, N. J., June 4.—Dr. Edward Terry, a medical inspector in the city schools, was reinstated by Assistant Commissioner of Education C. Brognard Watts Tuesday, who reversed the indefinite suspension imposed by the School Board because he was absent from its duties without leave.

It was also alleged that Dr. Terry had asserted that unless action were taken Atlantic City would have "Jim Crow" schools. This statement was traced to another source. Dr. Terry's absence was because of his being at the bedside of his dying mother. He was reinstated and given full pay for the time that he was suspended.

The annual sermon to local fountains of the order of True Reformers was preached at Shiloh Baptist Church by Rev. W. W. Allen Sunday night. Addresses were given by Rev. James Robinson, Delaware Williams, Hezekia Brown, chief of the Baltimore division, and others.

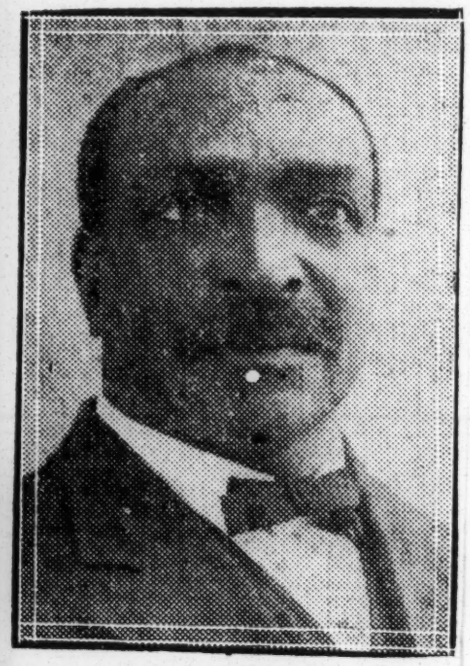
GENERAL NEWS OF THE COLORED PEOPLE



DR. A. J. LESTER.
First president of the Colored State Medical Association of Tennessee.

TO OUR READERS.

The writer of this column is desirous of acquainting himself with the pulse of the readers generally as to our work. We are also anxious to know if you have suggestions for the improvement or other ideas as to the conduct of the column. The writer courts criticism from any and all persons who would assist in the improvement of the service and work. Address communications to 410 Cedar street.

Monday morning at 7 o'clock at Union station will be found a most enthusiastic group of professional negro men waiting to board aspecial coach in which they will travel to Dickson, where is to be held Monday and Tuesday the annual meeting of the Volunteer State Medical association. The spirit of organization among medical men of Nashville was shown many years ago and Nashville, the "Athens of the South," can not only boast of her many literary institutions for both races, but her medical partment of Vanderbilt for the whites, d her Meharry medical department of Walden for colored, both standing in galaxy of medical institutions of the world over.

It was about twenty years ago that the negro medical men found it absolutely necessary to form their own medical organization and a few of the most enthusiastic formed a medical club. Twice a month they would meet, read papers, report cases and discuss medical topics in general. Finally one of this number issued a call to all of the physicians, surgeons, dentists and pharmacists of the race in the state to meet in Nashville and form a state organization. The response was hearty and from

By D. WELLINGTON BERRY

Carter to Shelby the negro professional men assembled in the hall of representatives at the state capitol.

The late Dr. C. O. Hadley, chairman of the local committee, called the meeting to order. The interest and enthusiasm was great and all were willing and anxious to co-operate. The white men of the profession then, as now, encouraged the effort in every way possible. The organization was perfected, sessions held and Columbia designated as the next meeting place. Accordingly, in June, 1903, the second meeting of the negro professional men was called to order by Dr. John A. Lester, of this city, the first president of the colored state medical association, and a two days' session was held. The following year the association met in Pulaski and the sessions have been held since in Mt. Pleasant, Clarksville, Memphis and again in Nashville, thence to Knoxville, Chattanooga, again to Columbia, and this year it will convene for the first time in the beautiful little city of Dickson. While the interest in the organization has fluctuated, it is said, the general course has at all times been upward and onward.

It is understood that nearly every member of the local medical organization, known as the Lock City Academy of Medicine, will attend. The state organization includes nearly every negro professional man in Tennessee. Dr. J. H. Hale, of this city, secretary of the state gathering, has sent out a most interesting program, which embraces many live topics to be discussed and every indication points to a large and interesting meeting. Dr. G. H. Bandy, of this city, is the president of the state association at present.

It is learned that the park commission has given consent to the board of trade committee recently appointed to arrange for a celebration at Hadley park to be participated in by the local colored people on July 4. The committee was given full power to make all necessary arrangements for making the day a success and it is predicted that the event this year will eclipse the similar affair given under the auspices of the board last year. It is expected that a short program to include music and patriotic speechmaking will be arranged and the announcement will doubtless be ready to be given to the public by the committee within a few days. Dr. M. V. Bautte, of the Northside Pharmacy, is chairman of the committee having the matter in charge.

From all over Tennessee the members of the race are expressing their gratification that the trustees of the Tennessee State fair have added "Negro Day" to the program of the state fair this year. Leading members of the race from every section are writing and assuring the negro board of trade of their willingness to exert whatever influence at their command to make the special day an overwhelming success. Every enocouragement is to be given the colored people to come and learn the improved methods of agriculture, live stock breeding, poultry culture, and the many other useful arts and sciences in the fair's program. The negro board of trade is well pleased with the progress of the details as they are being worked out and with the enthusiasm and satisfaction that the race all over Tennessee is taking hold of the plan.

The third of a series of open air meetings arranged under the auspices of the colored branch Y. M. C. A. will be held this afternoon at 4 o'clock on the corner of Charlotte pike and Fortieth avenue. The speaker will be Rev. T. M. Brumfield, pastor of Howard Congregational church, who is a most interesting and entertaining orator. Dr. J. W. Gilbert, president of Miles Memorial college, Birmingham, spoke to a representative audience last Sunday at the meeting held at Hadley park. It is announced that a meeting of the committee of management of the colored branch will be held Tuesday night, the meeting being the final session for the summer season. It is expected at this meeting that Secretary Sanders will be given a brief vacation and it is understood that he intends spending it visiting some of the leading association buildings in order that he may gain information as to their conduct and acquaint himself with all latest and improved methods in Y. M. C. A. work.

Friends of the Y. M. C. A. work in Nashville have been discussing with much interest an interview which Mr. Julius Rosenwald, of Chicago, recently gave out concerning the negro men and boys of America. The Chicago philanthropist, who is president of Sears, Roebuck & Co., has given $300,000 to the Y. M. C. A. among colored people, and it is said upon being asked why he had made such liberal donations for negro Y. M. C. A. work, replied that colored men have no where to go after hours of labor except to vicious saloons. Most all places of decent and helpful amusement are closed against them and he is reported to have said: "I thought the colored people were not having a chance and if places were provided for them they might show that they could elevate themselves."

At a meeting of the various heads of negro fraternal organizations of the state held in Nashville Friday, a committee was appointed to take up with the various societies the matter of settling upon a flat rate of endowment to be paid by all organizations entering such agreement. It is understood that the matter is to take definite shape as each body meets during the summer in their respective state gatherings. Those present at the meeting were J. H. Kelly, Columbia; A. M. Townsend, J. P. Crawford, P. F. Hill, Ira T. Bryant, Preston Taylor and James Bumpas.

The Capital City league announces another sport program to be carried out at Athletic park Monday afternoon, June 29, when the four clubs nearest to the top in the standing of the league are to engage in contests. The event will be known as "Boys' Day," and every boy in knee pants presenting himself at the gate will be admitted free. With every paid ticket presented by the men, their escorts will also be admitted at the games without cost. These events are fast becoming the most popular occasions by way of weekly outings that the local people are anticipating in and have been the means of securing much larger attendances than have ever witnessed baseball games in the past among colored people.

Bishop Evans Tyree, who has returned from a prolonged stay in the east, where he was engaged in the work of his church, it is announced, will speak at St. John A. M. E. church this morning at 11 o'clock. The bishop reports the work in his diocese in a splendid condition. Before returning to the city he also attended the commencement at Wilberforce university.

Mrs. Eliza E. Peterson, national organizer of the colored W. C. T. U., who has been in the city for several days attending the state convention of that body, will address the members of the congregation of St. Paul A. M. E. church this morning, and at 3 o'clock this afternoon she will speak at the First Baptist church. Mrs. Peterson is a matchless and gifted speaker and holds her audience in a masterly manner. She delivers some telling blows against alcoholism and incidentally shows in her speeches that negro women are responsible for much good in the land for which but little credit is ever given. Along with her work of organizing women of her race into the temperance cause she never forgets to defend the good and loyal women of the negro race and to encourage them along all lines that make for improvement and progress.

Rev. N. D. Shamburger, pastor of Clark Memorial chapel, filled speaking engagements in Knoxville the past week, and also at Ashland City. He returned in time to fill his own pulpit this morning.

DR. J. A. NAPIER,
Nashville dentist, who will attend International Dental Congress in London, England, in August.

The local colored public generally will receive with pleasure the report that Mrs. M. Overton, the milliner, who was taken suddenly ill several days ago and carried to Hubbard hospital, where an operation was found necessary, is rapidly recovering. It is stated that her physician has pronounced her out of danger and she is expected to resume active charge of her business again within a few weeks.

Grand Master W. W. Williams, of the Benevolent society, who has been in West Tennessee for several weeks, has returned to the city and reports a most successful tour in the western section. Among new organizations reported by him as the result of his visit is a strong and prosperous number in Memphis. After a stay in the city of a few days Mr. Williams will continue his visit through East Tennessee, stopping at Chattanooga for several days.

Tonight at First Baptist church a memorial service will be held in honor of the late Prof. W. S. Thompson, the principal address being delivered by Dr. W. S. Ellington, pastor of the church. The service will be held under the auspices of the Masonic Templars.

Announcement is made by the management of Greenwood park that the usual Fourth of July celebration will take place at that popular resort, when plenty of amusements will be on the ground both day and night. There are said to be many new features at the colored park, among them being a giant new roller-coaster. Baseball and races will be other features in the day, together with a balloon ascension. At night there will be fireworks, which will afford a spectacular scene.

HOPKINSVILLE

All arrangements have been completed for the dedication of the Zion Baptist church at Pond. The dedicatory services will take place today and the Rev. E. Williams, pastor of Virginia Baptist church, will be the principal speaker. He will be assisted by the Revs. John Moore, J. L. Allensworth and M. Moseley. Dinner will be served on the grounds. It is hoped that a large congregation will witness the services. Florence Etta Brooking of Indianapolis is the guest of Miss Kate Gaither, of the Clarksville road. Miss Brooking is introducing Walker's hair and scalp preparation.—Mrs. Juanita M. Robinson and little daughter have returned to Chicago.—The marriage of Miss Ardelia Boyd and Frank Clark of Hubbardsville was solemnized Thursday evening at 8 o'clock at the home of the bride's parents on Hayes street. The house was artistically decorated, the color scheme of pink and white being effectively carried out. The popularity of the young people was shown by the number of handsome and useful presents received. Rev. E. Williams was the officiating clergyman.—The June examination for county teachers was held Friday and Saturday at the circuit court room.—The Order of the Eastern Star gave a benefit entertainment Wednesday evening at the residence of Mr. and Mrs. Will Buckner of First street. It was largely attended and a nice sum was realized.—The grand council of the Good Samaritan lodges of Kentucky held its annual meeting at Earlington this week. Many members of the local lodge pere in attendance. Mrs. Lula Benton of Nashville is visiting her mother, Mrs. Amanda Glass. Miss Bessie Moseley is spending the summer with her mother in St. Louis. Mrs. Mary Williams is visiting her daughter in Chicago.—Miss Minnie Buckner, after a week's stay with her mother, has returned to Indianapolis.—Mrs. Geo. Moore of Elm street, continues still very ill.—Mrs. Anderson and son have returned from Jackson, Tenn.—Agnes and Willie Roy of Nashville spent Saturday and Sunday with their mother. They were en route to Chicago to visit.—Cornelia Boyd of Danville, Ill., arrived Wednesday to attend the Clark-Boyd wedding.—Mrs. Carrie Porter has returned to St. Louis.—Miss Lloyd Averitt of Bennettstown is visiting Miss Buckner of Vine street.—Mrs. G. L. Thompson, who has been visiting in Detroit and Chicago, has returned home.

NATIONAL CONGRESS OF DOCTORS IN RALEIGH

Special to THE NEW YORK AGE.

RALEIGH, N. C., Sept. 1.—The National Medical Association opened its sixteenth annual session on Tuesday, August 25, at 11 o'clock, in Shaw University Chapel.

The elaborateness of the social functions as carried out by the women's department and the North Carolina Medical, Dental and Pharmaceutical Association was so profuse as to cause the delegates to say that it surpassed any reception tendered since the national organization had been launched. The business sessions were held in Crocker's Hall, East Washington street. Dr. Norman Lassiter, president, presided through all the sessions. We have had many conventions in this city, but this was the first of its kind ever held here. And it goes to show that Suffolk is fast becoming a convention city. Dr. E. L. H. ANNUAL MEETING OF PHYSICIANS

Over Three Hundred Delegates Attended National Convention in Raleigh.

HARGRAVE MADE PRESIDENT

Physicians, Pharmacists and Dentists Put Ban on Use of Liquor in Practice.

(By T. L. McCoy)

Raleigh, N. C. Sept., 1.—The National Medical Convention opened Tuesday at 11 o'clock in Shaw University Chapel with all the National officers present, the President, Drs. A. M. Brown, Birmingham, Ala.; W. G. Alexander, of Orange. N. J. General Secretary, and J. R. Levy, Florence, S. C. Treasurer. The Executive Board: Drs. Geo. E. Cannon, '14, Chairman, Jersey City; E. P. Belsaw, D. D. S., '15, Secretary, Mobile, Ala.; J. A. Robinson, '14 Darlington, S. C.; F. S. Hargrave, '15, Wilson, N. C.; A. M. Curtis, '14, Washington, D. C.; C. V. Roman, '15, Nashville, Tenn., F. W. Ragland, Phar. D., '15 Birmingham, Aa.; E. W. Irving, '16, Memphis, Tenn.; A. A. Wyche, '16, Charlotte, N. C.

Dr. C. A. Bunston, local chairman introduced the president, who delivered a masterly address to more than 300 doctors, and as many visitors as could squeeze into the chapel which was fully packed. The first day's session began with the reading of papers on the following subjects: By W. W. Johnson, M. D., Covingham, Va., "The Physician and the patient"; By Valdo Turner, M. D. St. Paul, Minn., "Acute inflammatory Rheumatism and its treatment"; S. S. Bruington, Georgetown, S. C., "What is Pellagra?" Open discussion was indulged in on each subject read, and the doctors as well as the spectators were very much enlightened through these discussions, as well as from the papers read. Drs. F. O'Hara Miller, Wichita, Kan., "Dysmenorrhea, its cause and treatment"; A. L. Thompson, Memphis, Tenn., "Simptons and treatment of Typhoid fever;" W. F. Holmes, Florence, S. C., "Blood Pressure, its clinical significance;" F. D. Sessoms, Washington, Ga., "Puerperal Fever: Eleology, Symptoms and treatment;" U. G. Darley, Chicago, Ill., "Intestinal Tuberculosis;" J. R. Shepherd, Marshall, Texas; ,"Appendicitis: Its Pathology, Symptoms, Diagnosis and treatment;" F. S. Simpson, Ensley, Ala., "The abuse of Surgery;" John A. Kenney, Tuskegee Institute, Ala., "Post operative management of abdominal cases."

PUBLIC MEETING IN CITY AUDITORIUM

The first day's session closed with a public meeting in the city auditorium with a seating capacity of 5000 and was full to hear his excellency the Hon. Locke Craig, Governor, deliver his welcome address to the visiting doctors.

Those who know and heard Gov. Craig's address, say that it was the best speech they have ever heard him deliver. Applause after applause were given him and before he had gotten well into his speech it was quite evident that he had captured his audience, not alone in oratory, but in warm words of welcome and sound advise to the doctors and laymen as well.

He was followed by the Mayor of the city, Hon. James I. Johnson, who spoke words of welcome to the visitors that could be readily felt as coming from his heart. Hon. John C. Drewery, representing the chamber of commerce, welcomed the doctors to our beautiful city, known as "The City of Oaks."

Mrs. Hunter, wife of A. S. Hunter, D. D. S., of Durham, sang twice during the evening and each time she was forced to return and give an encore. Mrs. Hunter has a sweet voice and never fails to charm her audience. Dr. C. V. Roman, editor of the Medical Journal of the Negro National Medical, Dental and Pharmacentical Association, read a paper entitled "A preventable death rate." We unhesitatingly pronounce this paper to be the "Cream du la cream," of logica research on the subject named in his paper. When Dr. Roman had finished, the audience arouse and cheered him. His exegesis of this subject was so plain and convincing that a child could easily understand and profit by it. Such a paper ought to be printed in pamplet form and put into the home of every Negro in this country. At the Wednesday session Simon L. Carson, M. D., Washington, D. C., delivered an oration in surgery, "Acute indigestion."

These and many other interesting papers were read and we would be pleased to note them in these columns, but space will not permit us to dilate further upon them. The elaborateness of the social functions as carried out by the "Women's Department" and the North Carolina Medical, Dental and Pharmacentical Association as hosts were so profuse as to cause the delegates to say that it surpassed any reception that had been tendered them since their National organization had been launched. Teas, suppers, dinners, barbecues trolly rides, smokers and "kitty wilks" were features incident to the doctors' stay in our city.

We cannot afford to close this article without saying that we are pleased beyond measure with our "Home Folks" (the white citizens,) who responded so nobly and "Tar Heel," like to aid in making this Negro gathering a pleasant success in every particular. The two daily news papers opened their columns and printed everything we had to say and made our guests to feel welcome in the "Pine Tar State."

THE DENTAL SECTION OF THE GEORGIA ASSOCIATION OF COLORED PHYSICIANS AND DENTISTS AND PHARMACISTS ASSOCIATION.

At 6 p. m., May 12, the Dental Division of the Georgia Medical, Dental and Pharmaceutical Association met in the office of Dr. R. M. Reddick, 781-2 S. Broad street, corner West Mitchell street, Atlanta. After greetings and discussions along the lines of progress had been exchanged, arrangements for the remaining days of the session of the association were completed.

On the evening of May 12, at 8 o'clock, the association held its opening meeting in Bethel church. Dr. W. F. Watkins, of Montgomery, Ala., delivered the address of the evening. Entertaining and instructive, he was warmly received by his hearers. He appealed to the dentists of Georgia, Florida, and Alabama to lecture on oral hygiene in the churches, schools and everywhere possible and most especially in their offices to educate the people to the necessity of personal cleanliness so as to destroy the possibility of infectious diseases and thereby lower the death rate among the colored people.

On May 13, at 10 a. m., the dentists met in the office of Dr. Antoine Graves. Dr. A. M. Wilkins made the opening address. After congratulating Dr. Watkins upon his excellent paper of the previous evening and extending thanks to Dr. Graves for his hospitality in opening the doors of his attractive and well furnished offices to the association, he appealed to his hearers to live clean lives and to practice ethical dentistry in order to raise the standard of the profession.

Mr. J. W. Rocky, manager of the Johnson Fund Dental Supply Company, was introduced. After a few remarks he presented Dr. M. H. Vaun, special demonstrator of the Dimelow Interchangeable Facing and Kazan Teeth. Dr. Vaun described in detail Dimelow technique, giving his hearers a clear understanding of the simplcity, adaptabilty and strength of this asset to dentistry.

The Dentists then went to the labratories of the Eberhart Company. There they were shown the new invention of Dr. Eberhart, not yet on the market, a bite tray, whereby the taking of bites will be infallible. Dr. Eberhart demonstrated his methods of making and finishing plates and bridges and showed other kinds of work in mechanical denistry. The fund of information here received was very much appreciated by the Dentists.

For the entertainment of the doctors and their wives, a play with special numbers, was given on the evening of the 13th of May in the auditorium of the Odd Fellows' building. After this entertainment the doctors held a smoker in the auditorium rooms which lasted to the wee hours of the morning.

At 10 o'clock, Thursday morning, the dental meeting was called to order by the president in Dr. Graves' office. Prayer was offered by Dr. J. R. Porter, of Atlanta. After congratulating the committee on the framing of constitution and by-laws and upon the excellent work that they had done, Dr. J. H. Burney made a motion that the report of the committee be accepted. The motion was carried.

Dr. W. F. Watkins gave a demonstration on administering nitrous oxide and oxygen, using the Heidbrink automatic anesthetizer. It proved successful, enabling the operator to produce both anaelgesia and anaesthesia.

Dr. R. R. Hawse, of Macon, demonstrated the synthetic porcelain filling, encouraging those who had used it before as well as interesting those who had not.

Dr. D. F. Puhsley, of Americus, presented a paper on painless extraction. Among other things Dr. Pughsley told his hearers that they must first gain the confidence of the patient and that they must never extract a tooth that can be saved. He said that posterior teeth when absessed should be extracted because they can not be as easily drained as the anterior, to save which an attempt should always be made because they can be easily drained. This paper called forth much discussion. Those who entered enthusiastically into the discussions were Drs. R. R. Hawse, J. R. Hamilton, R. J. Johnson, D. H. Brown, J. W. Jamerson and Charles F. Hoskins.

Dr. Reddick presented a paper on the cause of the eruption of teeth. The paper was interesting and there were those who were anxious to discuss it but time would not allow. It is hoped that the dentists will have the privilege of listening to Dr. Reddick on this same subject at some future date.

The officers were:

President, Dr. A. M. Wilkins.

Vice-President, Dr. J. R. Hamilton.

Recording Secretary, Dr. Chas. F. Hoskins.

Corresponding Secretary, Dr. R. M. Reddick.

Treasurer, Dr. D. F. Pughsley.

National Association Brings Three Days Convention to End With Banquet

MEET NEXT IN CHICAGO

Attendance Reaches High Water Mark in Association's History; Many States of the Union Represented; Difficult Operations Performed During Sessions of the Convention

The National Medical Association, colored, embraces in its membership physicians, pharmacists and dentists, which began its sessions here Tuesday, closed its meeting with babnquet and reception in the dining hall of Shaw University.

This banquet was given to the visitors by the North Carolina Medical, Dental and Pharmaceutical Association. At this feast a resolution was adopted thanking the people of Raleigh for the hospitable treatment accorded the national association which was said to be the best in the history of association's meetings in any city.

Yesterday the following officers were elected:

President, Dr. F. S. Hargraves, Wilson, N. C.

Vice-president, R. C. Brown, D.D.S., Richmond, Va.

Vice-president (pharmaceutical) W. A. Jones, Ph.G., Winston-Salem, N. C.

General secretary, Dr. W. G. Alexander, Orange, N. J.

Assistant secretary, Dr. G. R. Ferguson, Charleston, S. C.

Treasurer, Dr. J. R. Levy, Florence, S. C.

Pharmaceutical secretary, H. B. Marable, Ph.G.

Dental secretary, S. L. Edwards, D.D.S.

The association will meet next year in Chicago. Invitations for the association to meet in Los Angeles, Cal., New York and Philadelphia were received.

There were nearly 400 doctors registered during the convention, the largest attendance in the history of the association.

The local and State colored physicians, pharmacists and dentists have been lavish in the entertainment of the national delegates, who came from many States of the Union.

At the session yesterday morning in the city auditorium Dr. W. P. Dickerson, of Newport News, Va., read a paper on "Intestine Obstructions," and Dr. J. A. Robinson, of Darlington, S. C., read a paper on "Medical Research."

Difficult operations have been performed on patients of Raleigh and elsewhere who came here for the purpose. These operations were performed by Dr. A. M. Curtis, of the Freedman's Hospital, Washington, D. C., and Dr. W. A. Warfield, and were said to be successful in every particular.

The colored people of the city consider themselves particularly fortunate in having this national body of doctors with them and believe that they will profit by the papers read and the lessons given on diseases, how to prevent them and how to treat them.

During the banquet last night Shaw University campus and buildings were illuminated with electric lights representing the emblems of the doctors, pharmacists and dentists.

THE ESCULAPIAN SOCIETY.

Of Indianapolis Met at Y. M. C. A. Building—Elects Officers—A Unit for Merging Hospitals—Banquet Follows Toasts.

1-31-14

On Tuesday evening of last week the members of the Esculapian Society, consisting of physicians, dentists and pharmacists, met at the Y. M. C. A. in its annual meeting. The election of officers and the discussion of the policy of the association are among the more important business for these annual occasions.

The association was called to order by the president, Dr. H. W. Armstead. Those present were: Egbert S. Dickerson, M. D.; Mart D. Baties, M. D.; Ward A. Wilson, Ph. G.; Thomas Weir Stewart, D. D. S.; Henry L. Hammons, M. D.; Calvin R. Atkins, M. D.; Joseph H. Ward, M. D.; William E. Brown, M. D.; L. Aldridge Lewis, M. D.; Clarence N. Harris, M .D., D. D. S.; J. Otway Puryear, M. D.; A. J. King, M. D.; C. A. Toles, M. D.; H. W. Armstead, M. D. William M. Lewis, editor of The Freeman, was present as the guest of the president.

Address by President Armstead.

The address of the retiring president was as follows:

Gentlemen—We have assembled tonight in our sixth annual meeting of our society. One year ago you honored me with the office of president, which office, providing that you make good, carries with it certain penalty. I am here tonight to return the same to your keeping and pay the penalty it imposes. When this society was first organized, many were half-hearted and indifferent as to the need of it, and the good it might accomplish; but by a casual observations of the conditions under which the profession were laboring at that time, some solution was urgent. Some were trying to succeed by knocking the other fellow, while others who needed each other's help refused to speak as they passed by.

In the face of such conditions, there was growing rapidly, a public contempt for us all, which meant professional failure.

But, gentlemen, I reflect your unanimous opinion tonight with the statement, that through the influences of this organization there exists today a liberal fraternal spirit, and the possession of the generous confidence of the public which is growing in leaps and bounds.

That class who would cry from the housetop that "No Nigger doctor can do anything for me" is growing beautifully less. They have found that public sentiment is with us, and for us. And those of them who are still holding off are very quiet.

Gentlemen, this has been largely accomplished through the influence of this organization. Those of us who have been here from the beginning have seen our respect and friendship for each other grow and ripen into that true fellowship which binds us in a tie of brotherly love.

It is to be regretted that every member of the profession in the city is not identified with the society, but it is hoped that at an early date they will come into the fold.

At the beginning of our term, a series of articles for the press on matters of interest to the public were to be prepared by you. Three were published at different times, which seemed to have met the approval of the public, but on account of unsatisfactory arrangements with the publisher, they were discontinued. I would recommend that you arrange to continue them next term. Conducted properly, they will give strength to our organization and make it a factor to be felt by the public.

"A little acorn in due time becomes the giant oak."

The influence of our small beginning soon spread out over the state and our brothers were invited to come with us. The result was a state association which by using though not designedly the interlocking Directorate of Trust fame, then popular—now unpopular the spirit of "get together" became state wide. From the State Society we hope to soon have the Tri-State Society, which is now in course of formation.

"Big oaks from little acorns grow."

Our Hospitals.

The society has been a live wire in trying to unite the two hospitals in one. Special meetings were held at various times at which plans were proposed and ways and means were discussed.

While the desired results have not been accomplished, the future prospects are very encouraging. Let us hope that before many weeks, the movement to have one big, well-equipped hospital for our people will be a certainty. We express our keen appreciation for the interest shown by Dr Moulder, suerintendent of the Methodist Hospital, in our efforts along this line, and hope that we will ever keep him close in touch with us.

I recommend that the society endorse and render every possible aid to Lincoln Hospital in their efforts to unite with any other charitable organization for one hospital. Said hospital to be of the people, by the people and for the people. Gentlemen, let us be of one mind in our purpose to accomplish this one thing. When the public see that we are as one for it, they will help us to get it. There are negotiations now pending which we hope will soon give us something definite to act upon.

I request that my successor will keep this issue before you till the goal is reached.

You will agree with me that words fail to express our appreciation for the many courtesies shown us by the management of the Y. M. C. A. in giving us the use of these beautiful rooms for our meetings. I recommend that you vote them a resolution of thanks accompanied by a small appropriation.

Again thanking you for the honor of serving you as your president, and for the loyal support rendered me, I am

Yours fraternally.

The Election of Officers.

After the transaction of other business the society went into the election of officers for ensuing year. The following were chosen: Dr. William Weir Stewart, president; Dr. Ward Wilson, vice-president; Dr. Clarence N. Harris, treasurer; Dr. Aldridge Lewis, secretary.

The Banquet—Toasts.

At the conclusion of the business program the members of the society repaired to the spacious dining-room of the Y. M. C. A. Here a sumptuous spread lay before them, consisting of the good things incident to such occasions.

Dr. Batties presided as toastmaster. The well planned program was faithfully carried out. Many interesting talks were made, several of which tended toward the consummation of the merging of the three hospitals maintained for and by colored people into one. Dr. Lewis led off with the subject: The Need of One Well Equipped Hospital for Our People.

Declare for One Hospital.

Dr. Lewis said:

In our zeal to conserve the health of this community, whose stewards we are, and to bring to the local colored medical profession the recognition which it so richly deserves, we are apt to lose sight of the fact that the real need of hospital consolidation may not be as apparent to the layman, as to the medical man.

His teaching has been that monopoly hinders progress, and that in all lines of human endeavor, competition is the life of trade. He has lived to see other industries lower rates which had been almost prohibitive, as soon as worthy competitors entered the field. And he does not always readily see the advisability of furthering any project to unite the hospitals of a community where merger and union and consilidation in other fields has resulted in inferior service for higher fees.

But he does not know that there is no money to be made in the right kind of hospital. He has not had explained to him that the man who gets a return on his investment and the only man, is the one who is served by that hospital.

That the hospitals of our city, open to colored people are woefully inadequate is no secret. Today two institutions are struggling for mere sustenance, within our gates, and neither of these are what we would have them. Between these two, the good people of Indianapolis are divided; to their infinite credit and while charity hesitates, to ascertain which of these two be the more worthy, the sick of Indianapolis must suffer.

It is for these therefore that we must think and work. For the lobar pneumonia cases who are dying for want of oxygen and circulatory stimulation. For the typhoid fever patient who lingers through a protracted convalescence because of the lack of proper institutional treatment. For the fibroid tumors and pus-tubs going daily into the hands of the white surgeon to make him wiser and richer, while black men must crush out of their hearts their fondest hopes—because they have no place sufficiently well equipped with modern hospital facilities or sufficiently supplied with intelligent nurses to inspire confidence of his clientele.

Dr. Jos. H. Ward said in part:

We think of the great good that must come to us in uniting our hospitals and old folks home. When we think of such a legacy to be transmitted to our posterity; we shall become so enthused and inspired that this question which now seems difficult will become as easy as the passing of a pleasant hour.

We can not attain the end by doubting. We can not squint our eyes, contract our brows and pucker our mouths at those whose motives we do not understand.

First of all we must ourselves believe the end we seek is right. Believing we are right then we must stand with adamantine firmness in the thought of that right.

We must be able to suffer vilification without misrepresenting. Patience, tolerance and justice are the pavement stones leading to the end desired.

Everyone—friend and foe must have his day in court good of all. Organize that is the slogan. That is your answer. Go into every part of this city, and make the people feel what you believe. Form clubs if needs be—unity clubs whose aim shall be to put into the ear of the thinking people the great benefit that will come with a united home and hospital.

Drs. Hummons, Brown and Atkins spoke interestingly on the one hospital movement. What they had to say accorded with the spirit of the foregoing papers. The speeches which followed including an original poem by Dr. Dickerson, were of diversity, including both sense and humor.

Prominent Young Norfolk Physician is Honored by Tidewater Medical Society

The annual meeting of the Tidewater Medical Society was held Thursday afternoon of this week at Mt. Vernon Hotel with a large majority of the members present.

The most important business of the session was the election of officers for the ensuing year, the annual addresses of the retiring president, Dr. Foreman, of Newport News, and of the secretary-treasurer, Dr. G. Hamilton Francis of Berkley. The secretary-treasurer's report showed that the membership of the society numbered 37 practicing phisicians, and that there had been much interest manifested by the society in matters of interest to the profession. In his annual address Dr. Foreman emphasized the progress that the colored physicians of Tidewater are making in major surgery, and urged the need of a colored hospital in this community.

The following officers were elected for the ensuing year: Dr. A. B. Green, president; Dr. A. J. Strong, first vice-president; Dr. S. O. Fields, second vice-president; Dr. G. Hamilton Francis, secretary-treasurer; Dr. Phillip A. Scott, statistical secretary.

At the close of the business session the society was tendered a banquet by the Norfolk Physicians Club. A choice menu was served by Caterer Bright, consisting of Consomme, planked shad, Smithfield ham, turnip salad a la Mt. Vernon, chicken salad, tomato and lettuce salad a la [illegible]cis, cheese and crackers, mixed pickles, pies, cream and coffee. Toasts were responded to by Mr. P. B. Young, Dr. G. Jarvis Bowens, Dr. P. L. Barber, Dr. J. J. Francis and Dr. G. Hamilton Francis. Dr. J. E. Mills acted as toastmaster in the happy and felicitious manner of which he is capable.

Chef Harris of the Mt. Vernon, received many compliments upon the splendid manner in which he served the delightful repast.

The Second Tri-State Semi-Annual Medical, Dental and Pharmaceutical Association, comprising the states of Tennessee, Mississippi and Arkansas held its first big meeting Tuesday night at the Berean Baptist Church. The meeting was intended to emphasize the cordial welcome that made it so easy and pleasant for the Association to hold this session in the hospitable city of Jackson. The program was in charge of the local committee, with Dr. J. L. Light acting Master of Ceremonies.

Welcome addresses were in order first on the program. The Association attempted to get the first welcome from the editor; in this it failed. The only discomfort, however, was with Dr. Walker of Union City who had nothing on which to turn that well prepared speech of response. The Doctors did have a welcome extended to them in happy, eloquent fashion by Father Bruce, Dr. J. F. Lane, president of Lane College, Mr. Haralason and Dr. Haralson. Appropriate words of response were spoken by the Doctor from Paris.

Dr. R. G. Martin of Memphis, Tenn., president of the Association made a timely address at the close. It was replete with helpful advice to race leaders who preach race pride and race loyalty and practice something else. He lamented the fact that the Negro teachers, preachers and others in the various professions and business lines who depend upon the race for support, in many cases, find it not convenient to patronize Negro physicians and Negro enterprises. The Doctor was in earnest and he drove home some vital truths that must take hold on our people.

The likeness of Dr. N. Miles, of Dickson, Tenn., is here reproduced. He is the only colored physician in that growing little city, and enjoys the respect and confidence of both races in his home town, as was evidenced by the compliments that were paid him by speakers representing each race at the welcome exercises held for the delegates to the state association of colored physicians at Dickson last Monday night. Dr. H. C. Guerin, a white physician of Dickson, paid the colored physician a distinct compliment in his address, as did Hon. W. T. Kinnard, who represented the mayor on the program. It is because of such qualities of helpfulness and unassuming straightforwardness as are possessed by Dr. Miles that is aiding to advance the race. It is this worthy type of young negro that the Meharry Medical College, directed by Dr. George W. Hubbard, is sending out into the byways and crossroads, as well as into the cities, to teach their people the things pertaining to the higher life. Dr. Miles graduated both in medicine and pharmacy at Meharry.

Dr. I. H. Hampton, of Fayetteville, who was re-elected as recording secretary of the state association, has served in this capacity for the past four years, and it is due to his high efficiency that those associated with him insisted on his continuing. He is in active practice at Fayetteville, and shares alike the respect of both races. The white physicians in his home city also are desirous of his success and lend him friendly assistance.

COLORED PHYSICIANS CONVENE AT DICKSON

DICKSON, Tenn., June 29.—(Special.)—A program of welcome was carried out at the courthouse here Monday night for the visiting delegates to the eleventh annual meeting of the state association of colored physicians of Tennessee, hundreds of local negroes being present. Hon. W. T. Kinnard, representing the mayor, delivered the welcome address to the negro doctors in behalf of the city. There were many white persons present.

Dr. C. V. Roman of Nashville, presided, and among other speakers were Dr. H. C. Guerin (white); Dr. W. Miles, the local colored physician, and several local colored ministers. A musical program was also enjoyed, one of the soloists being Madeline Carter, a well-known vocalist. Dr. F. A. Stewart of Nashville delivered the address in response to the welcome speeches. Following the exercises the delegates were tendered a banquet by the local committee.

Recommendations made by President G. H. Bandy of Nashville in his annual address to the state association were that in the future all annual meetings be held in cities where there are hospitals available for use by the visiting surgeons, and that the state association encourage the organization of negro graduate nurses independent and separate from the association, but to hold sessions at the same time and place as the physicians. A large number of delegates from all sections of the state are present at the meeting, which will last two days.

The sessions are being held in the Dickson county courthouse, and the association is meeting here as the guest of Dr. N. Miles, the local colored physician, who headed a committee of leading negroes of Dickson, to care for the visiting colored doctors.

The opening session was called to order by President Bandy at 9:30 this morning, and while the feature was the annual address of the president, discussions were had on several important subjects in which a general interchange of ideas were given by numerous speakers. The discussions followed a memorial service in honor of deceased members.

The subject, "Purpura Fever," was treated by Dr. F. A. Stewart, Nashville, and was afterward ably discussed by Drs. C. V. Roman, G. S. Moore, H. T. Noel, Nashville, and Dr. E. A. Posey, Centreville. Dr. J. H. Hale opened the discussion on "Making Good in Medical Emergencies," and among those who discussed this subject were, Drs. A. F. McCoy, Franklin; J. A. Lester, G. L. Jackson, A. M. Townsend, Nashville, and Dr. M. V. Umble, Oakland.

AFTERNOON SESSION.

A number of important subjects were listened to in the afternoon. "Pellagra and Twelve Cases in My Practice," was the subject of a paper read by Dr. M. V. Umble, of Oakland. The discussions were by Drs. A. M. Townsend and C. O. Hadley, of Nashville. Dr. W. J. Astrapp, of South Pittsburg, read a paper on "Building a Practice," which was discussed by Drs. C. V. Roman, J. Finance, W. J. Astrapp, South Pittsburg; S. H. Brown, Nashville; M. V. Umble, Oakland, and J. L. Leach, Nashville. Nominations, C. V. Roman, A. M. Townsend and J. A. Lester; condolence, J. A. Lester, J. B. Hale and E. A. Posey. Time and place, C. O. Hadley, H. T. Noel and J. B. Singleton; resolutions, F. A. Stewart, A. F. McCoy and N. Miles.

Much interest is centered in the announcement that Dr. G. W. Hubbard, dean of Meharry Medical college, will deliver an address before the convention at the afternoon session to be held Tuesday.

Many Noted Medical Men Present.

The Georgia State and Tri-State Convention opened on the evening of May 12, 1914, at Bethel A. M. E. church, corner of Butler St. and Auburn Ave. The convention was well attended in spite of the fact that the "Shriners" were offering more novel amusements down town. Those present on the opening night added discredit to the old assertion that the colored man loves pleasure more than anything else. The convention opened with prayer followed by many excellent addresses made by eloquent speakers and several good papers were read on "The mortality of the Negro" and "Oral Hygiene." The beautiful and expressive rendition by Mr. N. W. Bullock, attorney at law of Schuman's "Two Grenadiers" and "An Irish Love Song" was the feature of the evening. Mr. Bullock is a baritone of no mean ability.

Wednesday, May 13, and Thursday, May 14, found the medical men convening in room 600 Odd Fellows building, where a program similar to the one of Tuesday night was rendered. Stag parties were the features of Wednesday evening. The surgical and medical clinics were held at Fair Haven Infirmary. The clinics in pharmacy were held at the Gate City drug store. The dental clinics were held at the well appointed offices of Dr. Antone Graves, Auditorium building. Demonstrations were given the public at all of the clinics.

Annual Banquet.

The Dental Society of Chicago gave their annual banquet on Thursday evening, June 4, at the Carter Villa. This is the second social function of a large nature that the club has given since its organization and it has proved to be fruitful in many respects. Dr. Asa Barnes, president, and Dr. Harry Garnes, secretary, were the cause of the affair being so very successful and participated by so many able and brilliant leaders. An eight course dinner was served, after which Dr. Barnes, in a neat speech, introduced Dr. Theodore Mozee, who was the speaker of the evening. Very thoughtful, inspiring and helpful addresses were delivered by Dr. Charles E. Bentley, Dr. George C. Hall and Hon. Edward H. Morris. Among the visitors were Dr. H. A. Turner, who spoke for the Medical Association, Dr. U. G. Failey, Dr. L. Blanchet, Dr. Harris, Dr. Baxter, Dr. Young, Dr. B. A. Jordan, Dr. C. S. Dickerson. The members are Doctors Asa Barnes, W. T. Jefferson, J. H. Plummer, H. Garnes, J. A. Wright, A. C. Barnes, A. C. Johnson, C. L. Lewis, Theo Mozee, A. E. Mercer, Clifton Nichol, W. A. Richardson and N. A. Thorne.

A. Lester, J. H. Hale, H. H. Walker, S. H. Brown, Nashville, and Dr. A. F. McCoy, Franklin. The subject, "Practice of Medicine and Dentistry Inseparable," was opened by Dr. J. B. Singleton, D. D. S., Nashville, and those taking part in the discussion were: Drs. G. S. Moore, Nashville, and Dr. Y. E. Redmond, Franklin.

One of the features of the afternoon session was a paper read by Huldah Lyttle, of Nashville, a graduate nurse, on "The Rural Nurse." The association by resolution offered by Dr. J. H. Hale, of Nashville, took cognizance of the gift of $50,000 for a negro seminary for negroes recently made by the Southern Baptist convention, and endorsed Nashville as the logical place for the establishment of the school.

Attends Annual Meeting, Hears of "Dark Horse" and Is Surprised When Notified of His Election.

The Chicago Medical Society held their regular meeting at the Y. M. C. A. chapel Friday evening, May 29th. It was their annual election and there was a spirited contest to fill that office. At one time it bore all the earmarks of a fray in the political arena. Dr. Spencer Dickinson was the regular candidate and his admirers openly buttonholed their friends in his behalf. But the choice fell to Dr. T. A. Officer, who was elected. Dr. Officer was present during the early part of the meeting and heard rumors of a "dark horse" and was very much surprised when he learned that he was the mysterious candidate. The other officers elected were: M. J. Brown, M. D., vice president; Carl G. Roberts, M. D., secretary; James N. Harris, treasurer.

The Washington Express
4-21-14

The local Medical Association which is composed of a majority of the colored physicians, met at the office of Drs. Sunday, Welch and Dyson, Friday night in their regular monthly meeting with Vice-President, Dr. O. Roy Bush presiding; Dr. G. W. White, secretary. After the usual preliminaries the meeting was declared open for business. This meeting was called particularly to discuss the necessity for a hospital and training school for the colored people of this city and vicinity. After a discussion which lasted for nearly two hours, it was unanimously agreed that such an institution was a necessity. Dr. J. T. Welch made a motion that a committee of five should be appointed by the President on ways and means of establishing the much needed institution. The same prevailed. The chair appointed on this committee Drs. Morgan, Sunday, McMillian, Welch and Bush.

This committee will meet at an early date and make its report. When this shall have been done the physicians of the city expect to address a letter to the business and professional laiety, setting forth the needs of this institution for colored people, and asking their support morally and financially.

RACE MEN MEMBERS OF CHICAGO DENTAL ASSOCIATION

4-4-14
The Chicago Defender

Dr. C. E. Bentley, Dr. Jas. H. Plummer and Dr. Chas. Lewis were the three members of the Dental Association who entertained 4,500 dentists in the City of Chicago last week, it being the fiftieth anniversary of the Chicago Dental Society.

'Tis from such meetings that men go out with profound inspiration, with high ideals and a determination to do better work, to serve their patients the best there is in dentistry. The writer was impressed with two things, the magnitude and scope of the undertaking, with its elevating and educational influences, and the absence of men of the race. The association felt gratified, however, to see Dr. Chas. E. Bentley, Dr. Chas. L. Lewis and Dr. Jos. H. Plummer, who on account of their membership enjoyed all the privileges and courtesies of the meeting. Dr. Bentley presided at a luncheon at La Salle Hotel.

WHITE AND NEGRO CITIZENS HONOR COLORED PHYSICIAN

About 100 colored citizens of Orange and a number of white folk, gathered in Douglass Hall, that city, last night, to honor Dr. Walter G. Alexander, one of the leading colored residents of that city, who was a candidate for city commissioner. Mayor Daniel F. Minahan was one of the speakers. It was the first testimonial dinner ever given a colored man in Orange, and Dr. Alexander said that fact made him doubly grateful. Speaking impersonally, he was glad, he said, that recognition was given the colored race by testimonial of the kind.

The dinner was arranged by the Colored Citizens' Union of Orange, of which Dr. Alexander is honorary president and Dr. J. LeRoy Baxter, president.

The speakers included Gilchrist Stewart, president of the Vigilance League of New York; Charles W. Anderson, collector of internal revenue, New York, and Travers A. Spraggins, a lawyer, of Jersey City.

Mr. Stewart spoke of the record of the negro during the Civil War, as indicating the kind of stuff the race is made of.

Mr. Anderson said he was glad negroes were getting together, as it meant that progress was being made toward a point where the colored race would be regarded as an asset to the nation.

Reference was made by Mr. Spraggins to a fight he is making in the courts to compel an East Orange theatre to honor tickets held by colored folks. Success, he said, would mean another step in the effort of the colored man to gain recognition.

Mayor Minahan said he almost envied Dr. Alexander in his ability to lead the life of a private citizen. The trials and tribulations of the head of a city as big as Orange are many, the Mayor declared, and the Executive is not always to be envied. The Mayor told the colored residents he looked to them for support in his administration of the city's affairs.

The committee in charge included Dr. Baxter, W. C. Roane, George De Greate, Walter Johnson, Ernest Travis, Ernest Johnson, Erskine Bell and Hamilton Travis.

The Negro physicians, dentists and pharmacists of Ohio, Kentucky and Indiana will meet in Indianapolis September 7-9. A tri-state association has been formed, including the above-named states. Surgical clinics will be a feature of the meeting. The famous Dr. D. H. Williams of Chicago, surgeon, will direct this phase at the Lincoln Hospital. There will also be social functions in keeping with the occasion.

On Tuesday night of last week the South Atlantic Medical Society was reorganized at the office of Dr. H. M. Collier, 640 President street, east. At this meeting Dr. George W. Smith was elected president. The society ofcourse is the same as that organzed about two years ago, with Dr. F. S. Medical Associations — 1914

Sparks 7-0-14.

There are only four Negro physicians in Mobile—Drs. Brown, Harrison, Simington and Williams. They all report having a lucrative practice. We rejoice that our people are learning more and more to have confidence in their professional men, and to believe under similar conditions they can render as effective service as professional men of other races.

What has been said of the physicians may also be said of our dentists, Drs. Boyd, Thompson and Belsaw. Their offices are fitted up with the latest improvements known to the profession. They are kind and courteous to their patrons, and are masters of their profession. It is not surprising that they are enjoying the confidence and patronage of the people.
